DEATH OF DAVID A. CARTER.

Wealthy Pittsburg Gentleman Dies at His Home on Ridgewood.—Aged Sixty-two Years.

David A. Carter, died at his home on Ridgewood last evening about 7:30 o'clock, from an attack of heart failure.
Mr. Carter arrived from Pittsburg several weeks ago, accompanied by his wife and a niece. At the time he was in feeble health, but his condition grew gradually worse until the end came.
He was sixty-two years of age, and had a large legion of friends in his home city. He was wealthy, having made most of his fortune in the iron and steel business.
He leaves a brother, John Carter, of Indianola, who is expected here this afternoon, and also a sister, Mrs. Sarah Cable, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.
The funeral services will take place at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning, and Marsh, of the Congregational Church.

The remains will be shipped to Pittsburg for interment.

Kindergarten Xmas Exercises.

The Christmas tree exercises of Miss Harris' Kindergarten took place this morning on Orange avenue, between the hours of ten and eleven o'clock.
The tree reached the top of the room, and was artistically decorated by the little tots, as assisted by Miss Harris.
Present at the exercises, were the mothers of the happy little children, and they had prepared Christmas tokens that were exceedingly dainty, and much appreciated by their guardians, while Miss Harris in turn had also prepared gifts for her scholars. Singing and games composed the program.
